

IN THE CLAIMS

Kindly amend the claims as shown on the attached sheets.

IN THE CLAIMS

- 1.) (Currently amended) A table parlour game ~~particularly a turbo bowling~~ comprising a turbo player unit (1), bowling pins (2) and a lane plate (3) tilting to any direction.
- 2.) (Original) A table parlour game of claim 1 wherein the turbo player unit (1) is a whirling top, namely a conical solid of rotation, the plate (1/a) of which is shaped to have a regular hexagonal pattern and furthermore equipped with a rotating tail (1/b) and tip (1/c).
- 3.) (Currently amended) A table parlour game of claim 1 ~~or 2~~ wherein the lane plate (3) is equipped by setting device (4) comprising centrally attached globe head (4/a) and globe shell (4/b).
- 4.) (Original) A table parlour game of claim 4 wherein an anti-skidding rubber slab (4/c) is bonded to the bottom surface of the globe shell (4/b).
- 5.) (Currently amended) A table parlour game ~~Turbo-bowling~~ of claim 1 wherein the shape of the lane (3) is rectangular.
- 6.) (Currently amended) A table parlour game ~~Turbo-bowling~~ of claim 5 wherein the length of the plate (3) is three times of its width.

- 7.) (Currently amended) A table parlour game ~~Turbo-bowling~~ of claims 5 and 6 wherein the arrangement of starting cycles (5) and pin-stands (7) are identical and the longitudinal axis of lane plate (3) is symmetrical, furthermore the middle points of the neighboring starting cycles (5) and the middle points of the pin-stands (7) are in equal distance from each other.
- 8.) (Currently amended) A table parlour game ~~Turbo-bowling~~ of claim 5 ~~any of claims from 5 to 7~~ wherein the starting line (6) is located in the first third section of lane plate (3).
- 9.) (New) A table parlour game of claim 1, which is a turbo-bowling.